

Regarding the Teaching Role of Women at Leidy's Church
Immanuel Leidy's Church, Spiritual Council

Seeking to follow the instructions of Scripture, the Spiritual Council of Leidy's Church resolves that women are ordinarily excluded from the teaching of men. This means the regular leadership of a Sunday School Class, Bible Study, or other forum wherein public instruction occurs. The term "men" is understood to include those males who are beyond Confirmation age. This does not hinder women from being a resource for particular topics in which they may have expertise, from sharing testimonies, leading women Sunday School Classes or Bible Studies, or the teaching of males younger than Confirmation age.

Adopted June 1, 1996